Red Cross Silver and Gold Trinket Fund.

Old jewelry and silver plate, no matter how bent and battered, may be sent or left at Allchurch's Jewelry store.

These broken and discarded trinkets, such as silver thimbles, cuff links, broken chains, etc., are refined and turned into cash to buy necessities and comforts for our American soldiers.

Do your "bit" to help this fund.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

W. S. Smithers, Pastor.

Prayer service tonight at the parsonage.

Sunday services: Sermon by the pastor at 10.30 a. m. Bible school at 12 m. Junior League at 3 p. m.

All are welcome at the evening service at 7.30. Come in and join in the worship.

Orleans High School.

School has again opened after our long vacation, with the usual work. We have two new teachers, Miss Armstrong, domestic science teacher, and Mrs. Smith, who takes Mr. Seaver's place.

The Junior class have engaged the Norwich university Glee club to give a concert in the opera house Thursday evening. They need no introduction to the people of Orleans as they were here a year ago. Tickets may be obtained from any member of O. H. S. and will be on sale at the box office Thursday night.

Miss Lucy Hancock was called home Thursday night on account of the illness of her mother. We miss her from school.

We are still working on our play, "At the End of the Rainbow."

Francis Lacourse, O. H. S. '17, went Thursday to Maryland, where he will make his home and work for Prin. A. G. Fletcher, on his school farm. We all wish him great success and are sure he will make good.

Red Cross Notes.

Work meeting at the Orleans club rooms Thursday afternoon.

Please bring in the old balls of wool as the new is a little different. Anyone unable to finish knitting begun may bring it in.

The Vermont Supply Service has asked Orleans to make 48 undershirts (French) as soon as possible. Our branch has not yet taken up the work of surgical dressings, but has devoted more time and expense to knitted supplies. Average cost of supplies per week, $50, since June 1, 1917.

Until September branches could not fit out the boys before they left home. This can now be done, but no more goods can be sent to those in camps or service by the local Red Cross but please notify us if you hear of any individual of any military unit not equipped with knitted material. Quotation from Bureau of Military Relief.

Shipments for eight months, June 1, 1917, to Feb. 1918, to Burlington from the Orleans branch has been as follows: Pajamas, 60, comfort bags 60, housewives 60. Furnished to enlisted and drafted men of Orleans and Brownington: Pajamas 27, comfort bags and housewives 29, sweaters 17, scarfs 2, helmets 10, wristlets 10 pairs, service socks 50 pairs. To the Boston Bureau of Supplies: Christmas parcels 34, pajamas 24, hospital shirts 54, shoulder wraps 3, convalescent robes 37, operating leggings 2, hot water bottle covers 29, comfort pillows 79, comfortables 6, sweaters 136, scarfs 114, helmets 62, wristers 276 pairs, socks 324 pairs, hospital socks 66 pairs, balaklava caps 13, napkins 32, tray cloths 37, handkerchiefs 360, wash cloths 64, towels 4, pillowcases 2, fracture pads 14, face cloths 1300, mouth wipes, 5100. The revised list of members to Feb. 1, numbers 671.

House Burns in Bitter Cold.

The fire alarm sounded Wednesday night, Jan. 30, at 11.15 o'clock, calling out the department to fight a stubborn fire that started in the rear end of the house formerly owned and occupied by the late Heber Parker on Maple street, that has since been moved back and remodeled into a four-tenement house and owned by Fred Parker and Mrs. Carrie Parker Sargent. The house was occupied by Mr. Bean who had got only a part of his goods moved down from Newport. Grant Hussy, Harrison Twombly and George Stevens.

The fire started near the stove in the Bean tenement, possibly from a spark that might have fallen into the woodbox, and it was well under way before it was discovered, the occupants all being asleep. It proved to be a hard fire to fight, working up under the roof, where the water could not take effect and the building was half burned before it was under control at about 3 a. m.

The extreme cold made it difficult to work, the firemen being covered with ice, the water freezing on their clothing at once. Plenty of help was at hand, both the regular department and volunteers. Hot coffee was served at several of the homes nearby. The estimated loss was $3500, partially covered by insurance. The owners intend to begin making repairs as soon as the insurance can be adjusted.

Congregational Church Notes.

R. A. Hamilton, Pastor.

An interesting honor roll and flag dedicatory service was held Sunday evening. The honor roll and flag were presented to the church by the Young Ladies' chorus. The honor roll has on it the names of seventeen who are now engaged in the national service: Lieutenants Bennett, Doe and Webster, Sergeant Rowell, Corporals Campbell, Going and Sargent and Privates Clapper, French, Guild, Johnson, Joslyn, McWain, Skinner, Seaver, Sanborn and Turnbull. Five of the seventeen are already in France. Mrs. Lillian Doe Woodbury made the presentation for the chorus and Arthur O. Austin responded for the church. Principal Cogge of the high school spoke on "The Teaching of Patriotism in the Schools." O. W. Locke on "The Practice of Patriotism in Business," and Mr. Hamilton on "Tomorrow's Challenge to the Church." The chorus sang several of the national hymns, and the French anthem. Mrs. Sadie Lothrop presided at the organ and Harold Domina accompanied on the cornet. The chorus now has the following personnel: Sopranos, Marie Darling, Lula McDowell, Lillian and Olive Findlay, Freda and Thelma Stearns, Vera and Pauline Richardson, Mattie Maurin, Mary Skelton, Florence Hardie, and Mrs. Lillian Woodbury; altos, Mrs. Harriet Fish, Clara Dwinell, Beatrice McGoff, Mabel Bennett, Vera Bulard and Priscilla Alden. M. M. Taplin is director of the church choir.

The Woman's Missionary society met with Mrs. Turnbull on Tuesday afternoon, with the following program:

"The Philippines, Our Island Empire," Mrs. Woodbury; "Uncle Sam's White Magic," Mrs. Locke; "A Fighting Chance for the Leper," Mrs. Carlos Skinner; "Mindanao, Our Congregational Field," Mrs. Morrison. Morning worship at 10.30. The sermon will have for its theme, "Religion in the Ideal Democracy."

dition and remember that a large percent of fires are preventable and when burning wood there is a greater chance for a fire than with coal.

We wish in this way to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends, for their words of sympathy and many acts of kindness toward us during the illness and death of our beloved wife, mother, daughter and sister, also for the beautiful flowers.

Norman Willey and children,
Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Akley and family.

H. G. Dickens received orders Saturday to have flour sales placed upon the so-called 50-50 substitute basis in this place as outlined in a headed article on another page of this issue. The order came as a surprise to many, but those best acquainted with the situation knew that voluntary saving was not accomplishing all that was necessary if our allies in the war are to be supplied with necessary wheat.

Miss Marie Darling and Miss Sadie Lothrop, the January entertainment committee of the Red Cross, have arranged for a moving-picture benefit through the courtesy of Mr. Carson Monday evening, Feb. 11. Half the proceeds to go to the Red Cross. This play has been given twice in St. Johnsbury and they have asked for it again. An orchestra will be in attendance, and tickets are being sold in advance.

Henry Whiting has a unique rig for sawing wood that will attract attention anywhere. Having no gasoline engine he has met the demand by attaching the rear wheels of his automobile by means of a belt to a circular saw. The front wheels are fastened to a forward traverse and the rear wheels are jacked up on trestles. After meeting with success with his own woodpile, he has taken jobs at various places.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Heath came Saturday night to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Heath. Mr. Heath was obliged to give up work for a time and resigned his position with Armour & Co. at Waterville, Me., last December and they have been with Mrs. Heath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ford of Concord, N. H., nearly two months. Mr. Heath is now much improved in health and expects in a few weeks to go to work again for the same firm.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webster came Friday night to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Webster. Mr. Webster has been working for Armour & Company in Berlin, N. H., for several months and has recently been appointed manager of a sub-branch store at Rumford, Me., for the same firm, where he went Monday to begin his new duties. Mrs. Webster will remain here until Thursday, when she will go to St. Johnsbury to visit relatives before going to her new home in Maine.

The Book and Thimble club held its regular meeting last week Wednesday with Mrs. Badger as hostess, 16 members and three visitors present. Several interesting papers were read and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Frank Hall instead of Mrs. Stevens, Wednesday, Feb. 13. Let every member who can be sure and come as we expect Colby Stoddard will be there to give a talk on "The Rights, Duties and Privileges of Women Voters," and will answer any question we may ask him.

CONSTANT SUFFERER FINDS RELIEF
"I have been a constant sufferer from kidney trouble and three months ago was down, sick in bed for my back ached so severely I couldn't get up," writes F. Reynolds, 412 Herick St., Elmira, N. Y. "While in this condition, we read of Foley Kidney Pills so I commenced taking them. In a few days I was out of bed. Foley Kidney Pills strengthen kidneys and bladder. Recommended for backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff joints. Fred D. Pierce, Barton; G. H. Hunt, Evansville."

Standards of Doctrine.

The Apostles' and the Nicene Creed and the Thirty-nine Articles are the standards of doctrine in both the English and American branches of the Episcopal church. The American church omits the Athanasian Creed, which the English church retains, and has made some alterations in the Thirty-nine Articles, omitting Article 21. The church acknowledges two sacraments, baptism and the Lord's Supper as generally necessary to salvation, practices infant baptism, admits no one to communion until confirmed or ready and desirous to be confirmed, permits those only to officiate as ministers who have received Episcopal orders, and does not agree doctrinally with either Armenians or Calvinists.

A FLASHLIGHT WOULD BE HANDY

A handy, non-explosive electric light, that flashes its rays anywhere on the pressing of a button. Pretty nice thing to have on a dark night or in a dark spot. There are very many sizes, some small and some quite large. Batteries and bulbs extra, or lamps complete. Everybody should possess one.
